

THIS IS THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT of me MARY PROSSOR of 5 Bugle Street, Southampton, widow, I appoint my daughter Fannie Louise Emily Kent EXECUTRIX of this my will. I bequeath all my plate, linen, china, glass, wearing apparel, books, pictures, prints, furniture and other household effects and all my jewellery unto my said daughter Fannie Louise Emily Kent for her own use and benefit absolutely. I also give unto my said daughter for her own use and benefit absolutely, all monies held by my son in law Charles James Phillips of Bowling Green House, Southampton, aforesaid and upon which he pays me interest such monies being part of my marriage portion given to me by my late father, George Baker Esquire, I also give, devise and bequeath all the residue of my personal estate and effects and all my real estate whatsoever and heresoever (including all property over which I may have any power of appointment) unto my said daughter for her own use and benefit absolutely and lastly I hereby revoke all former wills made by me and declare this to be my last will and testament in witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand the 30th day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty nine - MARY PROSSOR - signed by the above named Mary Prossor as her last will in the presence of us both being present at the same time who in her presence and in the presence of each other have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses.

ARTHUR EDWIN BANNISTER, 31, Clifford St, Southampton, Jeweller

WALTER THOMAS BUSHROD, 16 North Front Southampton, Grocer's Assistant -

On the 22nd day of November 1895, Probate of this will was granted to Fannie Louise Emily Kent, widow, the sole Executrix.